

SUMMARY:

Teams are given a score sheet left at Russ Chandler Stadium the previous day. The flavor text suggests that there is a message hidden in the score sheet. The solution is contained in the Ball-Strike Counts, which are actually Braille. The rest of the score sheet is just to obfuscate the Braille.

SOLUTION

Notes: Any letter above T requires use of the bottom right Braille dot, which is not included in the balls and strikes count on the score sheets. Whenever this coordinate is needed, that at bat includes a batter getting out at 3B, which creates a dot in that spot. This is the case for the U, W, and Y in the clue.

The clue should be read with the home team's batting first. The clue deciphers to:
