

Recruits,

We recently found a body riddled with bullets behind a tattoo parlor. The medical examiner's report indicates that the tattoos were added post-mortem, and because the body belonged to an agent working undercover sorting letters at the Midtown Post Office, we believe the killer knows we are onto him. We need you to see if he has hidden a message in the tattoos. We've transcribed them below.

- How far can a coyote run into a forest?
- Which side of a brown bear has the most hair?
- What gets wetter the more it dries?
- What do the poor have, the rich need, but if you eat you die?
- What type of cheese is made backwards?
- What gets bigger the more of it you remove?
- What is white going up but yellow and white when it comes down?
- What is light as a feather and yet even the mightiest cannot hold it for long?
- What is the beginning of eternity, the end of time, the beginning of every end, and the end of every race?
- Down my canal no ship sets course, and I have a stirrup that fits no horse. What am I?
- What is it that has one foot on each side and another in the middle?
