Solution: Little Red Ridinghood: Werewolf Hunter

Explanation: This was the plot of the 2010 SyFy original movie Red.

The plot, “Jack the Ripper in Space” was based on a story arc from the series Babylon Five. Two teams argued that this was the plot of Sanctuary. The reason this was not accepted as an answer is that the plot given indicated that the story is set on a space station in the future, which is not true of Sanctuary. Also, teams were asked to identify the plot of a SyFy original movie, not a series.

The third story line was based on the book “The Borthers' War,” which also provided the back-story for the early editions of the Magic: The Gathering CCG.
